Bob feels strongly that it is in CIA's interest to chair the PerSSub because we can better assure maintaining our standards. Other than NSA, which has chaired the PerSSub in the past, any DoD component is likely to be more budget oriented and, therefore, not adverse to watering down security standards.

Marv says that the workload depends on the enthusiasm of the chairman. The committee meets once a month, a two-hour session at the Ames building, and supports three Adjudication Seminars a year. They are of five days each in duration and he as chairman spent one and a half days there each time. The DC/CD has chaired it in the past. Marv and I agreed that it could also be chaired by either C/STOB or C/I&CB if we wish to return it to CD.

1-3. I believe we should pass on the EX Sec. Position. - And I recommend we have either C/CD or DC/CD nominated for the Personnel Security Subcommittee. Let C/CG make the call.

Attached are two requests from C/SECOM to nominate a successor for the Executive Secretary of SECOM and for Chairman, Personnel Security Subcommittee.

The CIA has traditionally held the PerSSub chairmanship and, until [redacted] was named, the Chairman has usually been the DC/CD.

It is requested that the EXO advise PPG if D/S wishes to provide nominees from OS for either of these positions.

2-3: Pat -

Two names that come to mind for your consideration:

[redacted] for Ex Sec. Seccom
[redacted] for PER SUB
(in his capacity as Chief, Res + Analysis, PS).

[REDACTED]
Chairman

SUBJECT: Nominations for Chairman, Personnel Security
Subcommittee Chairman

STAT

CIA has advised that [REDACTED] will be unable to continue serving as Chairman of the Personnel Security Subcommittee, effective immediately. Members are requested to nominate candidates for this important subcommittee post. I plan to have [REDACTED] of the SECOM Staff serve as interim chairman pending appointment of a replacement for [REDACTED]. Receipt of nominations by 15 February 1986 would be appreciated.
